

Winchester Churches Nightshelter

invites you to

'Discover More' on

HOMELESSNESS SUNDAY

31st January, 11am-2pm

with the Mayor of Winchester & Debbie Thrower

also featuring the

2010 Homelessness Poetry & Poster Competition

At the Discovery Centre:

12 noon – The Mayor of Winchester speaks on

'My year so far' - focusing on homelessness;

11.30 - 1pm - Homelessness Poetry Competition 2010

poetry readings, displays & prizes.

At Winchester Nightshelter:

11 - 2pm: Open House and Discover More about the Nightshelter's work, latest initiatives, film showings, Basics Bank, Street Outreach, and what you can do to help. Refreshments kindly provided by Waitrose.

Enter your poem or poster on Homelessness by 25th January - see Adult & Schools' competition entry details overleaf.

Waitrose

Please remember the not-so-luck

www.wcns.org.uk

Homelessness Poetry and Poster Competition 2010

Calling all budding poets, artists and schools:

For the first year ever, Winchester Churches Nightshelter is running a poetry & poster competition for adults and schools – focusing on issues surrounding homelessness. Whether you have a home or are homeless, we hope you will enter a poem or poster.

Entries will be displayed to the public in the Discovery Centre during Poverty & Homelessness Week 25th – 31st January, with winning poems and posters used by the Nightshelter for raising awareness.

Readings by short-listed entrants will take place on Homelessness Sunday 31st January (see overleaf).

The Mayor of Winchester & Debbie Thrower will present the prizes.

Hampshire schools: please contact the Nightshelter if you would like to enter the special Schools Competition (age groups: 8-11 and 12-16yrs)

Rules:

- Theme: Homelessness, or aspects of being homeless
- Categories: a) Adult Poem or Poster; b) 8-11yrs Poem/Poster; c) 12-16yrs Poem/Poster
- Free Entry
- Any format or style
- Entries on 1 side of A4 or A5
- Include name, tel no, and age on back
- Enter as many poems or posters as you like

Poems & Posters must be submitted by 25th January to the Nightshelter:
by Email: admin@wcns.org.uk by Post: Winchester Churches Nightshelter, Jewry St, Winchester SO23 8RZ or by Hand: Nightshelter office 8am-2pm.

Please remember the not-so-luck

Enter Now: Closing date: 25th January 2010
Prizes kindly sponsored by The Discovery Centre.